Blutch

How much does an opinion weigh?
Does it really matter what I say?
I can't be responsible
Be yourself or be a toolWho cares what you expect?
What is politically correct?
All my ideas are in bad taste
Get off my case andJudge yourself
No one elseI don't intend to offend
I just offend with my intent
Beauty's in the beholder's eye
I just like the ugly sideWho cares what you expect?
What is politically correct?
All my ideas are in bad taste
Get off my case andJudge yourself
No one elseSee things the way I do
Walk a mile in my shoes
Don't assume and damn it, don't praise me
My thoughts would drive you crazySee things the way I do
Walk a mile in my shoes
Don't assume and damn it, don't praise me
My thoughts would drive you crazyKill someone, save a life
Don't do drugs, drink all night
Worship Jesus, praise Satan
Opinions are all contradictionIt's not a case of wrong and right
You may hate what I may like
Vice versa, it's the same
Just do it, no pain, no gainWho cares what you expect?
What is politically correct?
All my ideas are in bad taste
Get off my case andJudge yourself
No one elseSee things the way I do
Walk a mile in my shoes
Don't assume and damn it, don't praise me
My thoughts would drive you crazySee things the way I do
Walk a mile in my shoes
Don't assume and damn it, don't praise me
My thoughts would drive you crazyKill someone, save a life
Don't do drugs, drink all night
Worship Jesus, praise Satan

Opinions are all contradiction
