

Shells

Daniela Andrade

The words that you write, they catch me in the morning light

The lines that I read, oh they move me

We tucked it inside, aura so fine

Ooh it helps me, to find what I need(Chorus)

Take my hand ask me to stay

You take the lead now and show me the way

Fight for the love that you want in life

Darling, you take my hand and be mineHandful of shells, at home in my coat

Tales of a walk, beach fire sparks

Polaroid shots, exposed in the dark

Ooh it helps me, to find what I need(Chorus x2)
