

Gone Crazy

Devotchkas

Violence isn't an answer to problems you've got but people sure use the excuse here alot
If you don't like someone or how they look show 'em your hatred with a left hook
How silly is this shit-its making me sick ruining fun by acting like pricks
I look around and see so much gone wrong
how much longer can this crap go on?[Chorus:]
Has everyone all gone crazy?
I think everyone's all gone crazy!
Has everyone all gone crazy?
I think I'm going-gone-CRAZY! You pay eights bucks to get into the show but it gets cut off early 'cause theres a fight-way to go!
I'm tired of calling it an early night
because some tough bonehead went picking a fight Someone once called your friend you now call a foe
so you "even the score" by striking a blow this petty nonsense is giving punk a bad name and hooligans like you are putting good kids to shame[Chorus] How many more kids do you have to drop?
how many more venues will close before this stops?
How many more good times must come to a halt?
you can't even answer 'cause' you know you're at fault[Chorus]
