Stand Out

Love

I'm supposed to love you
But I don't know why
'Cause you don't want
To have nothing to with me, noYou hurt my feeling
And you make me cry
And it's the kind of thing
That gets next to meYes, stand out
Let me tell whatever you areNow yo say your mother taught you
To tell right from wrong
But this will show you
The divine line between a weak and a strongIf you go around blaming people
By the color of their size
All I can tell you people is
That you're in for a big surpriseYes, stand out
I think you ought to stand out
So I can say whatever you are
Stand out stand outNow you supposed to love me
And if you don't know why
Now I'm your ticket to heaven
And that ain't no lieI see a mass line of jet set
All filled up with hate
You better put some love in his life
Come on, hours getting lateStand out
I think you ought to stand out
