

Melanie

Toto

Watching, driving through the night, I'm all alone
Empty endless road, a thousand miles to go
Midnight, five million thoughts are passing in a row
Will you still be waiting there God only knows I can still see your face in my mind
With every turn I take
And the wind through my heart feels so cold
As it calls out your name Melanie, nothing but the touch
Of your hand can rescue me
Oh, Melanie, reach inside this emptiness
And you will set me free Morning, sun's in my eyes, I'm tied to your soul
One chance, one solitary life, how could I let you go
Got a phone call or was it a dream, a voice spoke to me
I could swear it was you that I heard crying desperately Melanie, nothing but the touch
Of your hand can rescue me
Oh, Melanie, reach inside this emptiness
And you will set me free I can still see your face in my mind
With every turn I take
And the wind through my heart feels so cold
As it calls out your name Melanie, nothing but the touch
Of your hand can rescue me
Oh, Melanie, reach inside this emptiness
And you will set me free, oh Melanie, nothing but the touch
Of your hand can rescue me
Oh, Melanie, reach inside this emptiness
And you will set me free
