Bluebird

Kasey Chambers

If I fall like rain, will you still feel the same?
Will you hold me and call out my name?
If I'm lost in the crowd, will you shout out loud?
Will you take me to the other side of town?When that sun beats down
Will you stay, will you turn around?
Fly awayLike a Blue bird tail wing
It sounds just like the angel sing
Am I ever gonna see you again?
Blue bird with a brand new wingIf my heart turns blue
Will it still belong to you?
Will you keep it just like him?
If I lose my wing, will I hear you sing?
You will make my tears go away?When that sun beats down
Will you stay, will you turn around?
Fly awayLike a Blue bird tail wing
It sounds just like the angel sing
Am I ever gonna see you again?
Blue bird with a brand new wingWhen that sun beats down
Will you stay, will you turn around?
Fly awayLike a Blue bird tail wing
It sounds just like the angel sing
Am I ever gonna see you again?
Bluebird with a brand new wingLike a Blue bird tail wing
It sounds just like the angel sing
Am I ever gonna see you again?
Bluebird with a brand new wing
Bluebird with a brand new wing
Bluebird with a brand new wing
