

Lover Come Up

Josh Kelley

Thunder, hard rain, I'm lonely
I know you're lonely too
Late night, thinking I need you
I know you need me too
So when you get the nerve
Just call and give the word
'Cause you're really something, baby, hey hey
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something, baby
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something, baby
When I'm touching you
Flawless, undressed, I'm nervous
I know you're nervous too
Motion, no rules, I'm learning
I know you're learning too
So when you get the nerve
Just call and give the word
'Cause you're really something, baby
When I get the urge
I'll give the love that you deserve
You're really something, baby, hey, hey, hey
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something, baby
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something, baby
Speak to me, woman, I got to hear you calling
And sing so I know what you're looking for
I might not give you what you want, little darling
But you better believe, I'm sure
Sure gonna give you what you need

So when you get the nerve
Just call and give the word
'Cause you're really something, baby, hey hey
And when I get the urge
I'll bring the love that you deserve
'Cause you're really something baby, hey hey
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something, baby
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
I said lover, lover, I'm gonna come up
'Cause you're something baby, hey, hey
Wanting you feels so right, feels so nice
