

We Are All Beads On the Same String

Saintseneca

Rotted away
The ides out of your May
As far as falls from grace are placed
I guess you're graciously effacedBut don't you let me down again
Don't you let me down again
Don't you let me down so gentlyThe wine was mine to serve
To dribble on your skirts
The napkin dab is a task best left for the guests to work
But don't you let me down again
Don't you let me down again
Don't let me down so gentlyWholly incomplete
Or holy and complete
Don't I feel you when you weep?
But we're all just beads on the same string
Seemingly discreet
Tethered inextricablyNo Eve ain't naive no more
No Eve ain't naive no more
No you've no use to know you anymore
But don't you let me down again
Don't you let me down again
Don't you let me down so gently
Don't you let me down again
Don't you let me down again
Don't you let me down so gently
