She's a Myth

Communions

She, she dances in the fire
And I, I dream of being beside herI've just got to be the one who helps her
Out of everything she's going through
I've been living wrong all my lifeI've felt alive
I don't think about the future
ljust do what it takes to survive
And it feels like a drive
Watching from a distance
Moving at the speed of the light
She comes flashing down like thunder
And I let the crashing pull me underI've just got to be the one who helps her
Out of everything she's going through
I've been living wrong all my lifeI've felt alive
I don't think about the faure
I just do what it takes to survive
And it feels like a drive
I'm watching from a distance
Moving at the speed of the light
All of my life
I've felt alive
I don't think about the future
l just do what it takes to survive
And it feels like a drive
Watching from a distance
Moving at the speed of the light
