Homewrecker

Jynx

Never again, Isn't that what you said
I'm done, Eating lie after lie
Remember where you were, Instead of being here
When we needed you I always knew the truth
Dilated eyes detach the truth from your reality..

Homewrecker you're shooting up all your sadness..
You sleep away all your pain
We're reaching out to save you but the haze just clouds your way
and now Its sad to say you're never coming back

You can't see this ends life after life
You will not bring me into your downfall
Control is clouded by your spiraling downfall from high, your precious habit filled world.
I wont follow in your footsteps

It's incredible
How far off life can seem from reality
You're not free
Your eyes blinded from hell
You created everyones suffering

Homewrecker you're shooting up all your sadness..
You sleep away all your pain
We're reaching out to save you but the haze just clouds your way
and now Its sad to say you're never coming back

Pathetic and useless with made up excuses
You're scared to face the truth with drowsy eyes..
Pathetic and useless with all your abuses
You're scared to face the world without the drugs on your mind

I'm so Sick of it!

Dragging
Pulling
Pushing
Disrupting all effort!
Do you know who you even are when you inhale..
Why won't you admit you're consumed by all of your problems

Your high blinds you and its why
You'll live and rot in this pit forever
Without the chance to salvage your life

Do you know who you even are...can't you see what you have done..
You are forever lost....

Homewrecker you're shooting up all your sadness..
You sleep away all your pain
We're reaching out to save you but the haze just clouds your way
and now Its sad to say you're never coming back
