The Trouble With The Truth

Patty Loveless

Oh the trouble with the truth is it's always the same ol' thing
So hard to forget, so impossible for me to change
And every time I try to fight it, I know I'll be left to blame
Oh the trouble with the truth is it's always the same ol' thingAnd the trouble with the truth is it's just what I need to hear
Ringing so right deep down inside my ear
And it's everything I want and it's everything I fear
Oh the trouble with the truth is it's just what I need to hearIt has ruined the taste of the sweetest lies, burned through my best alibis
Every sin that I deny keeps hanging 'round my door
Oh the trouble with the truth is it always begs for more
That's the trouble, trouble with the truth
That's the trouble, trouble with the truthAnd the trouble with the truth is it just won't let me rest
I run and hide but there's always another test
And I know that it won't let me be till I've given it my best
The trouble with the truth is it just won't let me restThat's the trouble, trouble with the truth
That's the trouble, trouble with the truth
That's the trouble, trouble with the truth
That's the trouble, trouble with the truth
