

The Trouble With The Truth

Patty Loveless

Oh the trouble with the truth is it's always the same ol' thing

So hard to forget, so impossible for me to change

And every time I try to fight it, I know I'll be left to blame

Oh the trouble with the truth is it's always the same ol' thing
And the trouble with the truth is it's just what I need to hear

Ringing so right deep down inside my ear

And it's everything I want and it's everything I fear

Oh the trouble with the truth is it's just what I need to hear
It has ruined the taste of the sweetest lies, burned through my best alibis

Every sin that I deny keeps hanging 'round my door

Oh the trouble with the truth is it always begs for more

That's the trouble, trouble with the truth

That's the trouble, trouble with the truth
And the trouble with the truth is it just won't let me rest

I run and hide but there's always another test

And I know that it won't let me be till I've given it my best

The trouble with the truth is it just won't let me rest
That's the trouble, trouble with the truth

That's the trouble, trouble with the truth

That's the trouble, trouble with the truth
