I'm In Deep

The Postmarks

..
Crossed the sky
..
since you turned my world upside since you fell for me airplanes looping through the sky riding in the air lovers noting lines of smoke that......
I'm falling in to your sea found myself with both feet over head I'm in deeplie hard...
and felt like butterflies since you turned my world inside out so silent in your eyes another... always shining
...
exists under the umbrella of my dreamsI'm falling in to your sea found myself with both feet over head I'm in deepI'm falling in to your sea found myself with both feet over head I'm in deepI'm in deepI'm in deep
