blaque ft. lord tariq

I never thought that our love waas going to be something really special. That you were going to love me how I love you.
When the love comes and knocks the doors from your heart you called me and now my love is you.

Chorus

Because I love you I want you I need you my love

Your really the only thing im always thinking of.
Because I love you I want you I need you my love
Your trully the one in dreaming for and my reason to live.
