

Mandolin

Spandau Ballet

Oh, mandolin, oh, mandolin
Waiting in the dark
All centuries passed down upon
Your smooth Venetian skin Memories, oh, memories
Lay stains upon your heart
When lovers dance into the trance
You weaved by candlelight Oh, I saw a sunrise like never before
As mandolin played I cried for more Oh, mandolin, oh, mandolin
Waiting in the dark
Well, centuries passed down upon
Your smooth Venetian skin Incessant sound, incessant sound
That stirs the young and pure
Incestuous I kiss my hand
And play the calling drum The lover cried into the silk
Many years ago
Your voice laid comfort down upon
His European skin Oh, I saw a sunrise like never before
As mandolin played I cried for more Oh, I saw a sunrise like never before
As mandolin played I cried for more Oh, I saw a sunrise like never before
As mandolin played, oh, I cried for more Mandolin, oh, mandolin
Waiting in the dark
Oh, centuries passed down upon
Your smooth Venetian skin
