The Incredible Medicine Show

Moxy Fruvous

(Murray on lead)
We are here,
to calm your fears,
and turn your world around.
The man to my right,
with the headset mike,
will stroll you through the grounds.
So enjoy your stay,
it's seafood day,
and surgery's at five.
(Mike)
We can correct what nature supplies
'cause beauty is something money buys.
(All)
Don't say no to the incredible medicine show.
Don't say no to the incredible medicine show.
(Murray)
The double chin,
can be tucked in,
the wrinkles we can hide.
Some herbal tea
and Chromium D
with 'drink me' on the side.
The little fear
when you look in the mirror gets bigger every day.
(Mike)
It takes work,
but it can be done,
to look 23 at 51.
(All)
Don't say no to the incredible medicine show.
Say no, don't say no.
Don't say no to the incredible medicine show.
Say no, don't say no.
Na na na, na na na na.
(guitar solo)
(Mike)
Smoke and mirrors,

dogs and ponies,
(Murray)
The President of the United States and his cronies.
(Mike)
Clean and colorful,
proud and ghoulish.
(Murray)
A fountain of youth
for the vain and the foolish.
(Murray)
Mrs. Booth,
you're a picture of youth,
those lips should last a while.
And carrot juice
will help reduce that creaking when you smile.
(All)
Don't say no to the incredible medicine show.
Say no, don't say no.
Don't say no to the incredible medicine show.
Say no, don't say no.
Don't say no to the incredible medicine show.
(Murray: We are here, to calm your fears)
Say no, don't say no.
Don't say no to the incredible medicine show.
(Murray: We are here, to calm your fears)
Say no, don't say no.
