Soul Rock

Ferras

So if you're gonna leave me, I got a few words to say I'm trouble in the morning but you knew that anyway And truth is you're the reason that I wake up each day And I don't need anybody else to tell meYou are my soul rock when the tide is up

And the waves are crashing in on me

Soul rock when I've had enough

Of the wreck of everythingThese streets got an undertow

And the city is sinking, ooh

You're the only hope I hold on to

When I'm drowningThis is for the damage and the madness that I made

I know I can be thoughtless but I promise that'll change

My heart may be bulletproof but it's still gonna break

Don't say, there's anybody else, tell me, come on, tell me You are my soul rock when the tide is up

And the waves are crashing in on me

Soul rock when I've had enough

Of the wreck of everythingThese streets got an undertow

And the city is sinking, ooh

You're the only hope I hold on to

When I'm drowning You are my soul rock when the tide is up

And the waves are crashing in on me

Soul rock when I've had enough

Of the wreck of everythingThese streets got an undertow

And the city is sinking,

Ooh, you're the only hope I hold on to

(I don't need anybody else, now) You, you're the only hope I hold on to

(I don't need anybody else, now)

Ooh, you're the only hope I hold on to

When I'm drowning
