How Long

Brother Cane

I'll set out one day
Maybe you will follow
Come what may
Oh, a glass of fear to swallowGot to get it over
If black and white were blind like in a dream
In a million years, maybe
Maybe we'll never know, no never
I want a chance to love whateverHow long my brother can we turn away?
There's anger and bitterness here
Can you tell me how long?No empathy
Like I'm supposed to feel some
Through misery
Shut my eyes like the next oneLook for satisfaction
Only see the lines that hide my face
Never find a resolution
Locking the doors in fear together
Holding the pain inside foreverHow long my brother can we turn away?
There's anger and bitterness here
Can you tell me, can you tell me how long?
Come on and tell me, how longHow long my brother, can we turn away?
There's anger and bitterness here
Can you tell me, can you tell meHow long my brother can we turn away?
How can we see our way clear, ohh
Can you tell me how long
