It Kills

The Afghan Whigs

Over and over
I get to know myself
Over and over
There ain't nobody else
Imperceptible the lines I draw to you
It kills to watch you love anotherI should have known better
When I caught you wild
You were incredible
Never knew you like I know you now
You are illegible
Imperceptible the lines that form the screw
It kills to watch you love anotherOver and over
I get to know myself
Over and over
There ain't nobody else
A receptacle of lies
Construed to waste your time
It kills to watch you love anotherOver and over
I get to know myself
Over and over
There ain't nobody else
Imperceptible the lines
Construed to waste your time
It kills to watch you love another
It kills to watch you love another
It kills to watch you love another
