Sleepless

Deadmau5

In the end, we are nowhere
Sleepless and still intact
Maybe we should be fall asleep
Saving what was left behind
Standing outside the chalk outline
Decide ourselves in time
The only thing I want, is the last thing I need
Awake and sleepless as stars shine

In the end, we are nowhere
Sleepless and still untight
Maybe we should be fall asleep
Saving what was left behind
Standing outside the chalk outline
Decide ourselves in time
The only thing I want, is the last thing I need
Awake and sleepless as stars shine
