All the words I had to say,
They don't mean nothing to you.
What the hell - we're on the way,
There is no nothing better. All we had to do was touch;
That was the best chance
I could have ever... and all of us. All day long we looked to fall,
Looking into the sun,
And found a way to get along.
To be waiting for you,
In the day, oh, in the day,
There's nights between us,
Looking for another way.
All the words I said were wrong,
They don't mean nothing to you.
All we had to do was touch,
And there's no nothing better.
In the day, oh, in the day,
I've been reaching for you,
Nights between us all the way It's all - the way.
You got it - it took so long to bear.
It's all - the way.
You got it - it took so long to bear..... And we've been waiting for it. All the words I said were wrong,
They don't mean nothing to you.
All we had to do was touch,
And there's no nothing better.
What the hell are beds for, man?
They go waiting for you--
Waste away, don't find the time--
It's all by your side! Hey! You got it!
Took too long to get it!
Hey! You got it!
Took too long to get it!
