Mythology Origin

Daniel Antopolsky

Just runninâ€™ for the sunset, donâ€™t wanna let it go
Gosh, the sky is purple, haze mountains of white snow
And on Crete the island, ancient rocks do tell
Myhtology Origin, as deep as a wishinâ€™ well, well, well, well
Deep as a wishinâ€™ well, hey!

A spectrum is the rainbow, of diamond in the sky
Horizon is the rainbow, right before the eye
Of the blessed onlooker, could be you and me
Of the smile of our Mother, just singinâ€™ in the breeze, yeah yeah
Just singinâ€™ in the breeze, hey!
Just singinâ€™

The colors of the waters, they seem to bathe me fair
Stars pull down the shutters
Our soul is dashed to dare
To soar right to the center, centrifuge of light
Magnificentâ€™s our brothers and sisters, dancinâ€™ through the night, yeah!
Dance, dance, dancinâ€™ through the night, hey!

Just runninâ€™ for the sunset, donâ€™t wanna let it go
Gosh, the sky is purple, haze mountains oâ€™ white snow
And on Crete the island, ancient rocks do tell
Myhtology Origin, deep as a wishinâ€™ well, well, well, well
Deep as a wishinâ€™ well, well!
Deep as a wishinâ€™ well, hey hey!
