

Worn-out

Pure Evergreen

Its late and I want to call
Did you think that I could sleep
I've been thinking about you
All this timeIts in your eyes
Something that I've needed
For a while
But anyhow
It doesn't matter anyway
Its over now
And it just fades awayI saw it coming
You set your sights on better things
Just when it looked peaceful
There goes everythingIts in your eyes
Something that I've needed
For a while
But anyhow
It doesn't matter
Its over now
And it just fades away
