The Problem

Emma Forman

I can't seem to get anything right
Don't know answers to the questions the whole world is asking me over and over again
Answers I can't deliver
No one understands me
No one cares how I'm feeling deep down insideI tried to let you know
I tried to let you see that
I think the problem might be me
I tried to let you know
I tried to let you see that
I think the problem might be me
The whole world can't be wrong, the whole world can't be wrong
I think the problem must be meSo send me some love to make me feel alive
Nobody else matters, just you and me
In a world full of emptiness let there be some truth
In this world full of emptiness please let there be some truthI tried to let you know
I tried to let you see that
I think the problem might be me
I tried to let you know
I tried to let you see that
I think the problem might be me
The whole world can't be wrong, the whole world can't be wrong
I think the problem must be me, the problem must be me
the problem must be me,
oh it must be me
