Cowboy

Lisa Germano

I love my little cowboy
When he laughs, Im happy
When Im weak, hes macho
We ride off togetherI love my little cowboy
When hes rough, Im happy
When I am, hes macho
A woman, a manBut every now and then he cries
But swears theres no tears in his eyes
Cause he a little cowboy
I tell him and he believes meThen he laughs and I am happy
We ride off together
A woman, a man
The power, the beautyBut every now and then he cries
He thinks that I dont know this
Cause hes a little cowboy
I tell him and he believes meWhen he laughs, I am happy
Well ride off together
We ride off together
A woman, a man
I know what Im doing
