Unfinished Words

The Rutles

Unfinished words like these
Unfinished words like cheese and onions
Help me to write this Marzipan songUnfinished words flying like birds
High in the sky above my deckchairI don't like anchovies on top of strawberries
And cream pink litmus paper shit turning blue
Kippers and jam, custard and spam
Are only just the stuff of dreamsI can't pretend to be Someone who pretends to be someone else
Or so my pretend friend tells me
