

Let Me In

Kristine W

You talk about love
I know about love
It don't grow on trees
When the stars shine on me
They shine sadly
I know about love You talk about home
This is my home
There's no bricks, no stone
When the wind comes calling 'round
Who's to shelter me?
Don't talk about home And I don't know why
I'm standing on the outside and I'm looking in
And how hard I try to be there
Out of the dark and joining in
Let me in Because Larry's gonna be there
Mary's gonna be there
Everyone will be there
Man I want to be there
Joe is gonna be there
Susan's gonna be there
Everyone will be there
So let me in You talk about loss
I know about loss
I don't have much
But those who have more
Think that I've got enough
I know about loss You talk about me
Enough about me
'Cause I'll disappear like a child in the crowd
You won't notice that I'm not here
So let's not talk about me And I don't know why
I'm standing on the outside and I'm looking in
And how hard I try to be there,
Out of the dark and joining in,
Let me in Because Sara's gonna be there
Mel is gonna be there
David's gonna be there
Oh, I gotta be there
Dorothy's gonna be there

Martin's gonna be there
Seymour's gonna be there
So let me in Ann is gonna there
Vince is gonna be there
Tony's gonna be there
Man I want to be there
Pam is gonna be there
Jack is gonna be there
Everyone will be there
So let me in And I don't know why
I'm standing on the outside

Songwriters

WEITZ, KRISTINE E/ARMSTRONG, ROLLO/DOUGAN, ROBERT DON HUNTER Published by Lyrics © EMI Music Publishing, Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC, Kobalt Music Publishing Ltd., Universal
Music Publishing Group, WEITZ HOUSE MUSIC PUBLISHING Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>