

The Greatest

Everlast

Don't throw no roses on my grave, boo
Death's not a soldier, it's more like an angel
You got nowhere to run, no one to pray to Jesus and Moses ain't comin' to save you

(The greatest, the, the, the greatest)I float like a butterfly, I sting like a hornet
They won't let me have it

Not even if no one else want it and if I try to take it
They wanna break me down and strip me naked
They write a brand new rule and break it

They lie, they cheat, they steal, they fake itBut I'mma make it, Lord, I can take it
I'm the

(The greatest man alive)
Cut the drama boy, save it for your mama

I'm the

(The greatest man alive)I can't sweat it, know I got to get it
I'm the

(The greatest man alive)
Without no doubt my name will survive
(The greatest, the, the greatest man alive)

(The greatest man)

(The greatest, the, the)I'mma make it, Lord, I can take it
I'm the

I'm the

(The greatest man alive)
Cut the drama boy, save it for your mama

I'm the

(The greatest man alive)I can't sweat it, I know I got to get it
I'm the

(The greatest man alive)

Without no doubt my name will survive

(The, the greatest man alive)The greatest, the, the greatest man
The, the, the greatest man alive

The, the, the greatest, the, the, the greatest man

The greatest man aliveI'mma make it, I know that I can take it
I'm the

(The greatest man alive)

Cut the drama boy, save it for your mama
I'm the

(The greatest man alive)I can't sweat it, I know I gotta get it
I'm the

(The greatest man alive)
Without no doubt my name will survive
(The greatest man, the greatest man alive)It only gets harder
It always seems so far away
The sky's getting darker
Another storm is on the way
(The, the greatest, the, the, the greatest)
Another storm is on the way
(The, the, the greatest, the, the greatest)
(The greatest man alive)
