In for Rain

Lorrie Morgan

Once again, here I stand
Left out in the cold
Dreams of love are all that's left
Dreams our heart took onMy memories can't shelter me
From all these clouds of pain
It's a cryin' shame
But I'm in for rain againLooks like I'm in for rain again
I feel the same old cloud I felt before it start movin' in
Lost in love before but swore this time that I would win
It's a cryin' shame
But I'm in for rain againWhen my storm is through and I'm over you
I'll reach for love again
Try to just forget my past
And pray one day I winBut for today, skies are gray
And all the clouds remain
It's a cryin' shame
But I'm in for rain againLooks like I'm in for rain again
I feel the same old cloud I felt before it start movin' in
Lost in love before but swore this time that I would win
It's a cryin' shame
But I'm in for rain againIt's a cryin' shame
But I'm in for rain
