The Falling

Eli Young Band

I'm a runner
that's what I do
Don't be surprised when i run from you
When you turn around I'll begone
I won't leave cause of something you saidf
Nobody will know which way that I went
Beat you to the door before you get the chance
Chorus:
It ain't the falling in love that I'm scared of
It ain't the moonlight shining in your eyes
It ain't the falling, baby, cause the falling I've always liked
I'm good at being lonely, lonely is all I got
It ain't the falling in love that'll kill me, it's the sudden stop

Love me now; we can't waste time
I'm not the kind that likes to stay all night
Once the sun comes up there's too much at stake
Never wanted a one night stand
A broken heart can really change a man
You're the kind of girl that could really hurt me bad
Repeat Chorus
I can't afford to fall again
Cause if you leaev yeah you know nobody wins
Repeat Chorus
