

Breathe You In

Papa Roach

Why do I got to learn the hard way
Why do I got to burn my bridges down
Now that I feel so numb
Cant I just be me for fucks sake
Maybe I dont have a purpose
Maybe I cut way too deep
Or maybe Ill scratch the surface
To find out that Im not worthless And I have never been so alive I feel a fire burning underneath my skin
Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in
I feel a freedom from this hopelessness within
Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in I shouldve stopped when I saw you break in
I shouldve stopped but I had to see it through
Now that Ive come undone
I know why Ive been forsaken
Maybe Im too weak to hold you
Maybe Im just out of range
So sorry I suffocate you
It must feel like I hate you But I have never been so alive I feel a fire burning underneath my skin
Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in
I feel a freedom from this hopelessness within
Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in Ive been afraid to show you what Im made of
And all of this time what was I so afraid of
You never did anything to make me feel this way
To make me feel this way I feel a fire burning underneath my skin
Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in
I feel a freedom from this hopelessness within
Now that I breathe in
I breathe you in I breathe you in
I breathe you in
