

Traitor

David Dunn

[Verse 1]

As I sit behind this screen,
Typing words the way they seem.
They come spinning out my soul,
Leave me barren, so exposed.
And as I sort through all this mess,
Thatâ€™s always jumbled in my head.
I am ashamed of who I am,
A wayward son, a wayward man.

[Hook]

And Iâ€™ll find,
That my heart is a traitor,
Inside,
Can you come and vindicate it?

[Chorus]

I wanna, wanna love you,
But I donâ€™t understand
Why my heart is a traitor.
I love what I canâ€™t stand.
I wanna, wanna follow all that you've ever said,
But my Heart is a traitor.
I wanna be free of this.
Can you break me free of this?

[Verse 2]

As I wait for the sunrise,
I see a new and shining sky.
And a night thatâ€™s gone away,
I see so clearly my mistakes.
And as you reach deep in me,
Show me what I wouldn't see.
And I am humbled by your touch,
How could I ever be enough?

[Hook]

When Iâ€™ll find,
That my heart is a traitor,
Inside,

Won't you come and vindicate it?

[Chorus]

I wanna, wanna love you,
But I don't understand
Why my heart is a traitor.
I love what I can't stand.
I wanna, wanna follow all that you've ever said,
But my Heart is a traitor.
I wanna be free of this.
Can you break me free of this?

[Bridge]

As these words come pouring out,
I finally know what they're about.
About the God who conquers all,
Who helps me stand when I can't crawl.
And when I'm down on my face,
Because I've chosen my own way.
And even though I've done him wrong,
He is there with open arms.

[Hook]

When I'll find,
That my heart is a traitor,
Inside,
Then He comes and vindicates it.

[Chorus]

I wanna, wanna love you,
(Oh yeah, yeah, oh)
But I don't understand
Why my heart is a traitor.
(My heart is a traitor)
I love what I can't stand.
I wanna, wanna follow all that you've ever said,
(I wanna follow, everything, everything)
But my Heart is a traitor.
I wanna be free of this.
(I wanna be free of this)
Can you break me free of this?
(Can you break, can you break me free of this?)
I wanna be free of this.
(I wanna be free of this)
Can you break me free of this?

(Can you break, can you break me free of this?)
