

Through the Wire

Tokyo Police Club

Through the wire to your door,
Through the wire.
Through the wire to your door. I'm killing time until I see her.
So many days, but I don't care.
I'm sleeping alone, even the warm nights cold.
But I got a picture, and I'm always coming home. Through the wire to your door,
Through the wire.
Through the wire to your door.
I'm coming around,
Ones and zeros on the ground.
I'll be a minute,
Through the wire, I'm down. Oh no, she's saving me a pillow.
She couldn't tell a single lie.
I'm coming around,
I'm gonna be laying her down.
Almost the real thing,
Gets me close enough now. Through the wire to your door,
Through the wire.
Through the wire to your door.
I wanna be there,
Ones and zeros in the air.
A couple of seconds,
Through the wire, and I'm there. I think of your face
Holding the keys to your place.
There's nobody else,
I'm lying awake by myself.
And count the days,
I creep your pictures on the train.
Don't give it away,
I'll do whatever it takes. Through the wire to your door,
Through the wire.
Through the wire to your door.
I'm coming around,
Ones and zeros in the ground.
I'll be a minute,
Through the wire, I'm down. Through the wire to your door,
(Through the wire.)
Through the wire to your door.
I'm coming around,

Ones and zeros on the ground.

I'll be a minute,

Through the wire, I'm down.
