

Better In A Black Dress

Katie Armiger

I left your key,
I hit the road,
I didn't want to but I had to let you go, oh oh
Whoa oh
I know you're shocked, I know you're mad,
I know it hurts to know a good thing went so bad, whoa oh
Whoa, oh
And I really do hate that you hate me,
And I really do hate that you hate me,

I don't need a white veil, I got a black dress,
Don't need a preacher, no no not yet,
Don't have the blues when I've got my red wine.
Out on the town,
or in the city, ain't nothin like the way it fits me,
So take that gown and lay it down to rest,
'Cause I'm better in a black dress.

I'm just a girl, I'm not a wife
I just need a little time to live my life oh, oh
Whoa oh
I wanna dance, I wanna yell,
I wanna band, I don't want no wedding bells, whoa oh
whoa, oh
And maybe one day you'll forgive me, (And maybe one day you)

I don't need a white veil, I got a black dress,
Don't need a preacher, no no not yet,
Don't have the blues when I've got my red wine.
Out on the town, or in the city,
Ain't nothin like the way it fits me,
So take that gown and lay it down to rest,
'Cause I'm better in a black dress.

I'm better in a black dress, call me a hot mess
I feel so good, ooh I gotta confess
I like the way it feels in cowboy boots or heels
So listen up, baby here's the deal

Don't need a white veil, I got a black dress

No No preacher not yet
Don't have the blues when I've got my red wine
Out on the town, or in the city
Ain't nothin' like the way it fits me
So take that gown and lay it down to rest
'Cause I'm better in a black dress

I'm better in a black dress
I'm better in a black dress
