Glass Towers

I just want to see what you have in mind.
Your name name upon my book I write.
I'm sorry I'm such a typical guy.
I cannot speak.
I have not tried to try to see what it is inside
That keeps us playing the games, these lies.
To try to se what it is inside.But when I
When I speak yeah you'll have your answer.
When you speak yeah you'll have you answer. (2x)If there's a clause about where we stood last night
Before we hit the ground but you love that sight
Why can't i be there by your side
Cause your brother is that kind of guy who stitches up when it don't feel right so why do i even tryBut when I
When I speak yeah you'll have your answer.
When you speak yeah you'll have you answer. (2x)
