

Sleep Like a Baby

K. Michelle

I wish i could act like, everything is fine
But forgiveness is going to take me some time
Pillows soaked every night, this bed is a sinking boat
How can i keep it afloat Should I wake you up and let you know I'm breaking every night while you sleep like a baby ohh
While you sleep like a baby ohh
I'm anger inside so many nights as I lay by your side and you sleep like a baby
While you sleep like a baby yeah Let me calm down and try to close my eyes
I can't believe you, you shared whats mine Laying underneath you, I know she slept good Can't get no shut eye, maybe I should try counting your lies Should I wake you up and let you know I'm breaking every night while you sleep like a baby oh
While you sleep like a baby oh
I'm anger inside so many nights as I lay by your side and you sleep like a baby
And you sleep like a baby ohhh You should be in this bed alone
You should be in this bed alone Should i wake you up and let you know I'm breaking every night while you sleep like a baby oh
while you sleep like a baby oh
I'm anger inside so many nights as i lay by your side while you sleep like a baby
While you sleep like a baby yeah
