Only Talking Sense

Finn Brothers

There's a wild thing in the wool shed and it's keeping me awake at night
A devil in the closet and a feeling I'd prefer to hide
He is religion, he won't hear me when I cry for help
He has a vision of me but I am somebody elseWe talk the pillow
There are times when I'm tied up to the fence
Only talking senseThere's a mirror lake before me but I'm frozen when it's time to jump
It's like maybe I'm afraid of what I'll find
When independence comes
You steel my shadow, you make my blood run dryWe are true only when we talk the pillow
There are times when I'm tied up to the fence
Only talking senseDid you suffer like a child
That's why you want to make me cry
You are afraid of me
That's why you're so unkindYou won't deny it when your child is tied up to the fence
And I'm only talking sense
Lonely when we talk the pillow
And your child is messed up in the head, I'm only talking sense
