The xx

Am I blind
You move your hand away from mine
And I don't take it as a sign
That you're any less than mine
Oh
It doesn't move me to be cold
It doesn't lessen my hold
You know our time meant all
Oh
Let it unfold
I won't leave it untold
The feeling goes on and on and on
In my head
You tell me things you've never said
And I choose to forget
I take the good and leave the rest
Oh
The illusion's getting old
And you don't answer when I call
I would have given you it all
Oh
Out of sight
Out of mind
It doesn't mean you're not mine
The feeling goes on and on and on
