Mindtraveller

Falconer

I travel over high mountains
Through deep valleys and forests
Crossing great rivers
In search of the knowledge of the godsFrom far beyond place and time
I hear a whispering wind
It tells me to strive on
Through the horizon of my thoughtsI am the mindtraveller
My quest is man's destiny
Teach me secret, holy spells
And the wisdom of the elderlyGazing into my mind
Entering my soul
Is there not a secret to unfold?I am the mindtraveller
Seeking wisdom of yore
I am the mind explorer
Striving to know so much moreSpirits of history fill my soul
With divine old words
I am on the right track
Out of the haze, I'll emergeI reach unknown corners
In the back of my mind
Never been here before
Still I recognize it allI hear the whispering voices
Clearly all around me
Echoing in the valley
Where magic intellect dwellsI am the mindtraveller
My quest is man's destiny
Teach me secret, holy spells
And the wisdom of the elderlyGazing into my mind
Entering my soul
Is there not a secret to unfold?Gazing into my mind
Entering my soul
Here I have advices to be toldI travel over high mountains
Through deep valleys and forests
Crossing great rivers
In search of the knowledge of the godsFinally I can see the blind
Not knowing why they exists
I hear laments of nature
Where led the path we missedI am the mindtraveller
My quest is man's destiny
Teach me secret, holy spells

And the wisdom of the elderlyGazing into my mind
Entering my soul
Is there not a secret to unfold?I am the mindtraveller
My quest is man's destiny
Teach me secret, holy spells
And the wisdom of the elderlyGazing into my mind
Entering my soul
Is there not a secret to unfold?I am the mindtraveller
My quest is man's destiny
Teach me secret, holy spells
And the wisdom of the elderlyGazing into my mind
Entering my soul
Is there not a secret to unfold?Gazing into my mind
Entering my soul
Here I have advices to be told
