

Hell to Pay

Before the Daybreak

Run from me,
It's your safe bet.
Just like the words you spoke,
Thinking I would forget everything.
I can't be the boy that's left to die.

I can't watch you
(Dance away, Dance away, Dance away)
But I just can't seem to look away
Even though there might be hell to pay.
(Dance away, Dance away, Dance away)
Seconds pass just like your love
When time runs out
I won't be thinking of you.

Hide from me,
It's your regret.
Just run away from me
Cause I won't forget this tragedy
I can't be the boy that's left to die.

I can't watch you
(Dance away, Dance away, Dance away)
But I just can't seem to look away
Even though there might be hell to pay.
(Dance away, Dance away, Dance away)
Seconds pass just like your love
When time runs out
I won't be thinking of you.
I won't be thinking of you.

Your sins are your way out
My sins are bleeding out
Your sins are your way out
My sins are bleeding out

I can't watch you
(Dance away, Dance away, Dance away)
But I just can't seem to look away
Even though there might be hell to pay

(Dance away, Dance away, Dance away)

Second pass just like your love

When time runs out

I won't be thinking of you

Of you...
