

Leave Me with the Monkeys

Sophie Hunger

Upstairs they have begun to sweep
The floors and night begins to speak of
Possibilities
Silence, promises
Cities full of story lines
Do I have to sing those rhymes
Possibilities
Broken promises Take away your easy jokes
And leave me with the monkeys
I know every place to go but
Will not go for pennies
Talk to me on every screen
Someone's always calling me
Is this a movie scene
A moving movie scene?
My back is turned against the car
I drop my keys and kiss the floor
Countless are the roads from here
But my heart is nowhere Take away your easy jokes
And leave me with the monkeys
I know every place to go but
Will not go for pennies
My heart
My heart
My heart
Is nowhere
Is nowhere
Is nowhere
Is nowhere
