

Lost Souls

2Pac & Outlawz

Cause I hate to spend
My life, my life, my life, my life
Ducking one time
How it start
How it start(2Pac)Started off with running from coppers duck and hide from helicopters
We open fire who can stop us
Living the life of trifle juveniles hoping for riches
Getting twenty five to life if the judge dont like us
In my clearest pictures I see authorities itching to get us
ATF state feds scandalous bitches
I wasn't promised to it
Wasn't bitter or sweet
See if a nigga dont hustle then a nigga dont eat
On these streets living do or die circle complete
Repetitive motions for felons in the rush for Gs
Please understand my history a man of many hats
Live a thug life coming equipped with plenty gats
Maybe I was just a lost soul trapped in time
Living in between life and the cracks we're blind
Even though we had hopes for deams that never came
Yet still we all feel pain
Just wait until the rain turns to sunshine
Cause I hate to spend my life, my life, my life, my life
Ducking one time
Stranded in the county in the worst way
Hell of a way to spend my 21st birthday
Born in the ghetto as a street thug
Its thug neighbourhoods and weed spots that we love (lost souls)
(Words from the mind of a lost soul)
Just wait until the rain turns to sunshine
Cause I hate to spend my life, my life, my life, my life
Ducking one time
(Young Noble)My brother Sean
First on my list
He stuck with a 3-5 when he get out would I be dead or alive
He taught me the rules so much
But still in thugs I trust
When in danger never hesitate to bust to keep my fucking trap shut
My moms dukes got a little bit of thug in her

The devil loves sinners, crackheads and drug dealers
 Sometimes I feel like the streets taking over never staying sober
 Prayin over and over backtrack
 My stacks fat I used to take them new
 Much love for my crew ayyo this ones's for you(2Pac)R.I.P rest in piece to Mu's grandma
 Know what we gotta do babe - one time
 Just wait until the rain turns to sunshine
 Cause I hate to spend my life, my life, my life, my life
 Ducking one time
 Just wait until the rain turns to sunshine
 Cause I hate to spend my life, my life, my life, my life
 Ducking one timeOne time - One time - One time(Idi Amin)I was born 22 years ago
 Yesterday but see I saw no reason for me to celebrate
 Let me demonstrate
 Entered the world through my poisonous womb
 Heroin being consumed already predicted my doom
 Soon
 To be one of the many misguided
 Always the first one on the block to be the tried it and liked it
 Lost before I had a chance to find my way
 Now I travel through life not knowing the time of day
 Grind for pay I'm on my way
 But dont know where imna end up
 I swear to god this is a set up
 And these are the words from the mind of a lost soul
 (Im a lost soul)(2Pac)Just wait until the rain turns to sunshine
 Cause I hate to spend my life, my life, my life, my life
 Ducking one time (Repeat X 8)To all of ya'll keeping ya'll in healthTo all of ya'll keeping ya'll in health
 Just to see you smile and enjoy yourself
 To all of ya'll keeping ya'll in health
 Just to see you smile and enjoy yourselfFor all my dogz keeping ya'll in health
 Just to see you smile and enjoy yourself
 For all my dogz keeping ya'll in health
 Just to see you smile and enjoy yourself
 For all my dogz keeping ya'll in health
 Just to see you smile and enjoy yourselfThrow your hands up (Repeated X 4 until fade)
