

Games of Love

Boyzone

Strong enough for you...
I believe in all that love can bring
I can see it's meant to be
And we'll be(Together)
You'll see the best in me
(Forever)
We were meant to be
'Cause I know it
Yes I know there's always
You to come home to Love see us through
Because of you Love see us through
Through and through
This love is strong enough for two
Like a child I want this love to grow
In my smile, I tell it all
So we'll be(Together)
You see the best in me
(Forever)
We were meant to be
'cause I know it You to hold on to Love see us through
Because of you Love see us through
Through and through
This love is strong enough for two Strong enough coz our lines are tough
We've been together 'cause love's no bluff
All you sexy ladies put your hands in the air
Slam your body down like you just don't care(Together)
Wy'see the best in me
(Forever)
We were meant to be
'Cause I know it
Yes I know there's always you to hold on to Love see us through
Because of you Love see us through
Through and through
This love is strong enough for two
