

Anthem Song

Aaron Gillespie

We sing to You, Oh God, for You are good
Your love for us will always carry on
Your faithfulness is brighter than the dawn
The whole universe is echoing Your song

Hear it rise

Your anthem, we sing out
You are holy, You are holy
Before You, we bow down
You are worthy, You are worthy
Oh God

Every droppin' son will fall down on their knees
To You, oh God, the one and only King
Your creation cries that Your glory be may known
One day, every heart will know You are God alone

Your anthem, we sing out
You are holy, You are holy
Before You, we bow down
You are worthy, You are worthy
Your anthem, we sing out
You are holy, You are holy
Before You, we bow down
You are worthy, You are worthy
Oh God

Hear it rise

Our hearts, they cry
Your anthem song
It goes on and on and on
Your anthem, we sing out
(You are holy, You are holy)
Before You, we bow down
You are worthy, yeah
Your anthem, we sing out
You are holy, You are holy
Before You, we bow down
You are worthy, You are worthy
Oh God, yeah
You are worthy, oh God
