I Couldn't Sleep

Au Revoir Simone

I couldn't sleep
Didn't want comforting
Just company to sleepAnd then in dreams we meet
And stay asleepI awoke feeling restless
Didn't know quite where I was
Though I felt far away and cold
It was so late but my mind was curious
It was quiet, snowing with frosted windows
I had a book but wasn't reading just watching youDidn't want comforting
Just company, oh be sweet
It could go either way
Based on what they say
