Falling for the Beat

Andrew Ripp

Stole my heart
You took and threw it
In your getaway car
You caught me so off guard
And I kind of like it, yeah I kind of like itI've got it bad
How did I ever get to where I'm at Somehow I woke up in the palm your hand
And I kind of like it, yeah I kind of like it[Chorus]
How could I want you, want you so bad?
When I just met you, how could I let you
Take what's left of the love I had
Feels so wrong, feels so rightNow I'm falling, I'm falling for the beat
I wouldn't change a thing
I'm falling for the beat, yeah yeah
Falling for the beat, yeah yeahShook the ground
From underneath me
Now I'm lost and found
Can't tell the difference between up and down
And I kind of like it, yeah I kind of like it[Chorus]
How could I want you, want you so bad?
When I just met you, how could I let you
Take what's left of the love I had
Feels so wrong, feels so rightNow I'm falling, I'm falling for the beat
I wouldn't change a thing
I'm falling for the beat, falling for the beat, yeah yeahI'm falling
Oooooooo yeah[Chorus]
How could I want you, want you so bad?
When I just met you, how could I have let you
Took me over, happened so fast
Feels so wrong, feels so rightNow I'm falling, I'm falling for the beat
I'm falling, I wouldn't change a thing, yeah
I'm falling for the beat, I'm falling for the beat
I wouldn't change a thingFalling for the beat, yeah yeah
Falling for the beat, yeah yeah
