

To Play Your Little Game

Cressida

I face the wall, I can't recall
But knowing you, I must confess I'll lose my mind
Should I remember you ?
A room for talk, I'll take a walk
To free the wheels I'll check my list of friendly faces
The answers must be sought

Now I'll have to face the facts
Soon I'll realise, I'll turn around
Turn around to play your little game
(repeat)

I thought I had the answer then
I'm on a ment, I turn around but then you're gone
Julie was my friend
I face the wall, I can't recall
But knowing you, I must confess I'll lose my mind
Should I remember you ?
