

Let the Cards Fall

311

Let the cards fall, let the cards fall where they may
All I can do all I can say gotta move to trust my instincts and surrender
Let my song sing itself, I am they who admit what they don't know
All my friends excitable they'll tell you soSo let the cards fall and fall where they may
In checkin' on our conviction dick we run from the shit our own way
So what you will so what you wish follow your bliss on everyday
Never ask for an advantage let the cards fall where they maySo let the cards fall and fall where they please
Ask me while we're at it I do it with ease
Taking up space is the people who wish to hold you back
But in reality the majority really don't give jack

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>