Biggest Fan

Blazin' Squad

From the moment that I saw you that night
Only thing that kept me going was your vibe
One of those shows that didn't seem to go right
Pointed you out, told you to meet me at stage side
I would have paid to just come and see you
The way that you dance love the way that you move
Got one of me need a poster of you
You're the girl that puts the picture in my mind
Guess you don't understand I'll be your biggest fan
When I get off the stage tonight I wanna be your man
Now thank you for wantin' me but I need you in my life
If this night goes the way that I planned I'll be your biggest fan
At the signing you were nowhere to be seen
And now I wanna see you more than you came to see me
I'm gettin' nervous, will I find the words to say?
Now ain't it funny it should be the other way
I would have paid to just come and see you
The way that you dance, love the way that you move
Got one of me, need a poster of you
You're the girl that puts the picture in my mind
Guess you don't understand, I'll be your biggest fan
When I get off the stage tonight I wanna be your man
Now thank you for wantin' me but I need you in my life
If this night goes the way that I planned, I'll be your biggest fan
Front row the rock spots a chic that don't want his dough
But still loves his hits that the way to go
If I was poor or rich she wouldn't let me go
'Cuz this chick is so damn getto, oh
She wants to chill and roll with me backstage
And when it comes to blazin' she can blaze all day
She wants him for the many years, not the status
That comes along with being famous
Hold up yo lemme break this down
With only eight bars it's so hard to take the crown
I've been watchin' your style, girl, it's been a while since I seen ya
At the show cant wait to meet ya
And treat ya good do everything I should need ya flava so bad
Got me touching wood
We could blaze it, rearrange it turn the pages

And if we meet again I'll forget about the wages
Guess you don't understand I'll be your biggest fan
When I get off the stage tonight I wanna be your man
Now thank you for wantin' me but I need you in my life
If this night goes the way that I planned I'll be your biggest fan
Guess you don't understand I'll be your biggest fan
When I get off the stage tonight I wanna be your man
Now thank you for wantin' me but I need you in my life
If this night goes the way that I planned I'll be your biggest fan
