Faith in Me

Faith In Me
words and music: Hubert Dapliyan

Sometimes I wonder, If You are listening
I feel so helpless in this prayer room
But I won't stop believing, I won't give up
Patience is a virtue

Sometimes I feel sad, things I don't understand
The things in my mind and my trembling hands
But I won't stop believing, I won't give up
There's hope for the hopeless

Faith in me will always be You
Faith in me, my God I know You're here
Even in the darkest hours, faith in me comes from You
Faith in me

Sometimes I cry in the middle of the night
But I'll give my all to You, everything will be alright
And I won't stop believing, I won't give up
I will be stronger

Faith in me will always be You
Faith in me, my God I know You're here
Even in the darkest hours, faith in me comes from You
Faith in me

Faith in me will always be You
Faith in me, my God I know You're here
Even in the darkest hours, faith in me comes from You
Faith in me

Even in the darkest hours, faith in me trusts in You
Faith in me
